of the skin, such as Scaly, Scrofula, Ulcers, Boils, Blotches, and pimples on the face and body, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual excess.
The celebrated author, in this admirable Treatise, clearly demonstrates, from a forty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, can be effectually cured, cheaply, privately and radically. This Book should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

SIMMONS'

The symptoms of liver complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constive, sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with pains in the head, and a feeling of something which ought to have been done.
Often complaining of weakness, debility, and low spirits. Sometimes, some of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the Liver with

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, --- NOVEMBER 3, 1870

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

The Cynthiana "News" has the largest Circulation of any Paper in Harrison county, or in the Sixth Congressional District.

A Monument to General Lee.

It is proposed that, within the next ninety days, every Southern man contribute a dollar to a common fund in their respective States, for the purpose of placing a monument over the grave of General Lee.

HIS LAST WORDS.

If the wandering death-bed utterances of the two great Confederate chieftains, "Stonewall" Jackson and Robert E. Lee, may be considered as final upon the matter, then the late Confederate General A. P. Hill, who lost his life at the closing battle of the war, must be accepted by history as the most trusted coadjutor of these eminent commanders. In his dying moments Jackson exclaimed, "Send A. P. Hill to the front!" Upon his death-bed at Lexington General Lee, as the telegraph states, his mind reverting to the bloody events of the war, "Once ordered his tent to be struck, and at another time desired Hill to be sent for." Thus does it appear that, in the supreme moments of the closing hours of those men upon whose shoulders rested the heaviest burdens of the war upon the side of the Confederacy, came the utterances, born of delirium, but more solemn for that reason, that stamps General A. P. Hill as a man whose presence was to be desired, and whose fidelity was assured! No higher compliment could be paid to his memory than these parting words of Lee and Jackson.

Simmons' Liver Regulator.

I have for years been opposed to Caiomel, and since 1839 have used Simmons' Liver Regulator as a Vegetable Remedy, and can confidently assert that it has exceeded my expectations, curing cases of Dyspepsia and Liver complaint that were thought almost hopeless.

GRENVILLE WOOD,

Wood's Factory, Macon, Ga.

[For the Cynthiana News, SHREVEPORT, LA., }
October 11th, 1870. }

DEAR MOREY:—The "News" continues to greet us weekly—bringing joy and sunshine. I will again offer you a few, perhaps, uninteresting observations from this part of the Upstarts (Gov. Wamouth's) kingdom, in which however, I will promise brevity. The Radicals here (few in number and weak in faith,) are anxiously awaiting the presence of his majesty (Wamouth) next Saturday—the thief who during his rule in this State, has driven a dagger to the vital interest of the people—a creature who has neither the heart of man or christian—a fiend incarnate, who has stolen from helpless women and children—a carpet-bagger—a man without character. May the remembrance of his many fiend-like deeds loom up before him—may his hours of meditation and repose be disturbed by them—the innocent lives of the poor widow imploring mercy cluster around his pillow—his memory ever revert to the land which curses him as they have been cursed by him—
"And when death comes to close his eyes, And his soul labors in fierce agonies,"

May the Angels hover around his dying couch and point out to him in the Great Book of Life, a list of his many wrongs and hellish deeds.
May the ghosts of his victims the sweat of whose brows have been measured by him for taxation, be there too, to haunt him during his last hours upon Earth.

The Democracy here are making vigorous efforts for the redemption of the State from Mongrel rule. They will succeed—the bristling bayonets of Yankees can no longer prevent them or whip their noble spirits tame. The dark cloud is rapidly passing away—the sun shine of our freedom and disenthrolment will soon burst forth. We have been aroused as it were from a long sleep to a sense of our duty—rallying with unbounded enthusiasm around the old Democratic flag, which in former years was borne proudly and successfully through every contest—and under which, our Government was prosperous.

The weather here is clear and pleasant. The unfavorable dispatches from Liverpool, has had a very depressing effect upon cotton in this and the New Orleans markets. There is no demand for the staple here, holders being unwilling to make concessions. All branches of business sympathize with the depression of the Cotton market, and consequently business is stagnant. The worn has recently been doing much damage—and the present crops will fall far short of that raised last year. The "Yellow Fever" panic has greatly abated—only a few cases reported in New Orleans.

The Marshall (Texas) Fair will commence November 7th, and will exceed anything of the kind ever held in the South-West.

To avoid any difficulty or disturbance under the provisions of the several Acts of Congress, defining the rights of "Citizens of African decent," the Association have determined to set apart certain seats for their exclusive use—upon which no white person will be allowed during the Exhibition, while the same rule will apply to seats reserved for white persons. Jno. Williams, a printer, well and favorably known to your community, will arrive here during the present week, and will be connected with the Shreveport "Bulletin," a weekly and tri-weekly paper, and a strong and earnest advocate of sound Democratic principles. We cheerfully greet John, and I am confident that his coming will redound to the good of the paper.

[For the Cynthiana News,
Moral Training in the School-Room.

The moral training of youth is attracting much attention from teachers and the public. The question is, not only how to advance the pupil most successfully in book-learning, but how to make the children to be good men and women.

If the teacher would lead the children, under his charge, in the paths of virtue, he must march the whole road himself. He must bring with him into the School-room a kind, gentle, and generous disposition.
He must exercise a spirit of forbearance and charity toward the children, if he would successfully inculcate these virtues. "Like begets like," and it is the nature of children to follow example.

More depends upon the teacher than upon any books or lessons.
Teachers of experience, who have attained to eminent success in their profession, know that the excellence of a school depends more upon the teacher than it does upon the buildings, apparatus, or any other circumstance; and nowhere is the truth of this more evident than in the work of the moral training of the children.

It is the example rather than the precept that is important. The good done is rather in the actions of the teacher than in the words, except when the words themselves constitute a loving act.

Let trustees of schools realize this truth; let them search for schoolmasters whose lives in the schoolroom, and out of it, are constant lessons of virtue. No scientific excellence can compensate for a cruel or vicious government.

As a rule, women are more kind, and gentle, and affectionate than men are. If a man and a woman have equal skill and scholarship, the woman should be preferred as a teacher of children, on account of her feminine influence. They have a greater sympathy, a more generous and unselfish affection, and when not deficient in educational attainments and discipline, are more successful in the instruction and training of children than men. What a blessing it is, that in our young days, we were in the hands of our mothers, and were not left to the tender mercies of philosophers of education?

While the master's example is the first, yet other examples can be used as scholars advance in years. Younger children give little heed to any example that is not before their own eyes. Older ones may be helped by examples of the heroes of story or of history—the heroes of our own land, the patient women who have risked their lives to nurse the sick and wounded, the noble men who have died for their country, the heroes of other lands and other days, the grand army of martyrs who have died for the truth, and the blessed army of martyrs who have lived in pain and want for God's sake—the heroes whose deeds have been chronicled by poet or historian, and the heroes whose long patient suffering has been known only to our Father in Heaven. The distinction between training and knowledge must not be forgotten.
When example is used, we always have moral training; when precept is used, we may only succeed in giving a knowledge of the law. Example is the great means of training in morals. The precept however, is not to be neglected. Of this we propose to treat in a future article.

School Commissioner.

October 21st, 1870.

[For the Cynthiana News,
ANTIOCH, October 1st, 1870.

M. J. MOREY:—A very laughable incident occurred at the Dedication of the Northern Methodist Church, near this place, some time in September last.

After a sermon had been delivered, the brethren and sisters were requested each and every one to express their feeling. Several short talks were had, when the feeling began to grow intense and warm, religiously speaking, when a brother of the Southern Methodist persuasion remarked "that he did not intend to speak at this meeting, but as he turned the corner Jesus struck him."

Response by an Irish, brother Northern Methodist. "Amen, strike him again Jesus." Respectfully, &c.
JONES.

THE PEOPLE'S LITERARY COMPANION.

The People's Literary Companion, for November, comes to us as bright and as fresh looking as the green fields after a gentle rain. It is published by E. C. Allen & Co., Augusta, Maine. Terms, 75 cents per year. A fine Steel Engraving, entitled "From Shore to Shore," is presented to every new subscriber.
It is really one of the most pleasing engraving ever before the public.
The Companion is printed on fine, heavy paper; its columns are filled to the brim with good things by talented authors, and withal it is one of the largest and finest illustrated family paper published.

The Case of Alabama.

General Grant ought to be the idol of his party. He does everything it asks him to do, no matter how unbecoming his station it may be. But in this he becomes, not the idol, but the tool. His interference was thought to be necessary to the success of his political friends in Missouri, and it was promptly given.
All Federal office-holders in the State were warned that in refusing to do the bidding of the Administration they but made smooth the pathway to the guillotine. They were told that every man's head was at the risk of the owner. And then came Alabama. Let the New York World tell the story:

An election takes place in the State of Alabama on the 8th day of November, at which are to be chosen a Governor and State officers. members of Congress and the issues in the canvass in the repeal of the act by which some twenty-five millions of money is appropriated for State aid to railroads. Under this act the State debt is rapidly swelling and the burdens of the people are largely increased.

A coalition has been formed between the Alabama railroad ring and the Radicals for the campaign, and their candidate for Governor has pledged himself not to sign any bill repealing the State aid railroad law and to sign any measure which the railroads may want in the future.
The people of the State are aroused, incensed and alarmed at the rapidity with which their State debt is increasing, and the way their property is taxed for the benefit of a combined clique of monopolists and corporations. The manifestations of disapprobation have been so marked on the part of the people in all parts of the State that the Radicals fear an overwhelming defeat. In this emergency the leading spirits of the railroad ring, with General Crawford and the carpet-bag United States Senator Mr. Warner, came on North, and were several days at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in this city concocting schemes for getting President Grant to interfere and send the military to Alabama to aid them.

Carpet bag Warner's re-election to the United States Senate depends upon the Radicals carrying the Legislature, and he has entered fully into the alliance; and it seems that General Crawford has also, for he was in this city aiding Warner and the railroad men in their intrigues. They have, according to our report from Washington, succeeded in inducing Grant to make Alabama a separate military district, placing General Crawford, who has become a tool of this ring, in full command, with an additional number of troops to be sent there for this special occasion.
It is by these means, and these alone that they hope to carry the State. Of course Gen. Crawford, having been one of the foremost in the intrigues to obtain orders for military interference, will do anything that the ring of carpet baggers and railroad men ask.

The people of Alabama are as peaceable as the people of any other State in the South; but they are about to be guilty of the crime of electing a Governor and a Legislature whose aim it will be to save the State from utter bankruptcy, and of the additional crime of choosing an honest United States Senator in place of Warner, the carpetbagger, and for these premeditated crimes they are to be placed under the rule of the bayonet. Alabama must therefore re-elect Smith Governor, and Warner to the Senate, and give the gallant Crawford a chance to succeed Spencer in the Senate, or she must pay the penalty. Is there a virtuous Republican in or out of Alabama who can sustain a thoroughly unscrupulous Executive in the perpetration of such outrages as these?

EUROPEAN WAR NEWS.

THURSDAY, October 27.
A special dispatch from Metz, received in Berlin, states that all the endeavors of the Bonapartists through Bazaine to secure peace on the basis of the Empress becoming Regent have been abandoned. All hopes of peace are in consequence at an end, and peace can now only be gained by the intervention of the neutral powers. Special dispatches from Berlin report that the people are tired of war, and that there is a general desire for immediate peace. A letter from Paris, dated the 18th, states that the city was quiet, and there were no signs of starvation.
It was thought provisions would begin to grow scarce about December.
The report is denied that the Prussians have evacuated Orleans. The troubles at Marseilles are increasing.
The Red Republicans are largely in the ascendant, and in open rebellion against the Republican authorities at Paris and Tours.

FRIDAY, October 28.

Metz has at last surrendered. King William announced in a telegram to the Queen that the capitulation took place yesterday afternoon. One hundred and seventy thousand prisoners, including twenty thousand sick and wounded, laid down their arms.
The surrender of Bazaine, it is stated, has been made with the Prussian Government upon the understanding that the occupation of Metz and Strasbourg shall be accepted as an adequate basis for withdrawing the German forces from France and concluding peace. The Republicans in London loudly denounce Bazaine as a traitor, and declare the Paris Government will repudiate any peace signed by him. It is stated in a special dispatch that after being informed by the Empress Eugenie that she would sign no treaty of peace involving a surrender of French territory, Bazaine exclaimed that he would take the responsibility himself. This was on Wednesday night.
Bazaine immediately sent for Prince Charles, and yesterday signed stipulations for the surrender of Metz.

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, --- NOVEMBER 2, 1870.

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

FOR CONGRESS.
W. E. ARTHUR.
Of Kenton County.

The Cynthiana "News" has the largest circulation of any paper in Harrison county, or in the Sixth Congressional District.

HARRISON COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

We are authorized to say to the members of the Executive Committee of Harrison county, that they will meet on Saturday next, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of transacting important business.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RACE.

Next Tuesday is the 5th of November, and it is the day that every Democrat in the Cynthiana Precinct, in the County of Harrison, in the 6th District, in the whole State of Kentucky should devote to his Country and for his Country's good. It is but one day, and that day is next Tuesday, and we want every earnest man who desires to see the Country taken from the hands of the Radicals, come forward and express his sentiments at the polls. This is an election for Congressman, and in this race, every man's vote tells for his weal or woe, at Washington city. If a man wants expression and taxation all his life-long, let him vote the Radical ticket. If he wants peace, ease and plenty let him vote for W. E. Arthur, the Democratic Standard Bearer, and all will be well.

SPEND ONE DAY AT THE POLLS.

The Democrats of Harrison, must see to it that every vote is polled—that none are prevented for want of conveyance or any other cause from exercising the right of suffrage. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, and if the Democracy expect to put down the Bondholders.

The pampered and protected manufacturers.

The Land Pirates.

The Government thieves.

The British congressional scoundrels.

The Base and venal Senators.

And all those who have become rich by swindling, deceiving and robbing the people, they must come up and vote this election.

Let no trivial affair keep any Democrat from the Polls.

At every point of the compass the great Democratic party is on the rise, and our columns are advancing. Then go for Arthur and Democracy, and all will be well with us yet.

A WORD TO OUR IRISH FELLOW-CITIZENS.

There never has existed a party, in this Country, that had as much hatred for the Irish as the present Mongrel radical republican party. They carry their persecution even to proscription. The Buttrick County (Ohio) Democrat, informs us that all the laborers on a gravel train on a railroad which runs to Miami city, in Ohio, were Irishmen, and because they intended to vote the democratic ticket were all discharged, and hangers imported from other portions of that State, were given their places.

This, in our opinion was a most contemptible, as well as mean way to oppress white people, and especially Irishmen, and we hope that they will not forget to come forward next Tuesday, and give us a helping hand in this struggle, and resent this Radical insult to their countrymen in Ohio.

Don't forget that Wm. E. Arthur is the Democratic candidate.

Newspapers.

Subscriptions are now being received at the Post office for 1871 for all Magazines, &c., such as Harper's Monthly Bazar and Weekly, Leslie's Illustrated News, Chimney Corner Godey's Ladies Book, Childrens Hour, Peterson's Magazines, Ladies Friend, Saturday Evening Post, New York Ledger, N. Y. Weekly, Saturday Night, Every Saturday, and all other Publications that a person may want. Orders should be brought in early, so as to prevent a discontinuance at expiration of present year.

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE.

Every Democrat should feel, in this Congressional vote, that he is personally interested, for he can truthfully assert that he is directly interested in the election of sound democrats to Congress.

How so?

If we gain a majority of Democrats in the House we shall have some legislation for the people, and not so much for the land grabbers and thieves. Then, shall this beautiful Country, which was redeemed from the savage and the wild beast, by the energy and courage of the people, and now struggling with Taxation and Robbery, Murder and Misery, Remain under the mongrelism of Radical mismanagement, and they continue without opposition.

No!

Is the answer of every Democrat and lover of his Country.

Then don't forget to vote early, and spend one day for the salvation of the Country.

Hurrah for Arthur!

LET US HAVE PEACE.

Because a man votes the Democratic Ticket, he should not necessarily be quarrelsome, by no means. He should follow peace with all men—and to do that, go early to the polls, cast his vote before any drinking is done, and then if stimulants must be used, taste it lightly, and strike out for home immediately. It is a truth that can not be denied, to wit: "that an idle brain is the Devil's workshop," and if you loaf and loiter about a voting place, something may be said to excite a rough reply, and then comes the tug of war. The people of this city, and this county, have an excellent name abroad for their peaceful, law abiding demeanor, and we hope that nothing will occur on Tuesday next, which will cause our friends to change their opinion. Democracy means order, peace, prosperity, and good will toward all men. Let us exercise our principles to the fullest extent, firmly, peacefully and triumphantly, by voting for Arthur and Democratic measures.

GRANT'S THANKSGIVING.

His Excellency President Grant, has appointed the 24th of November 1870, as an appropriate day to give thanks throughout the United States. We have as much respect for Grant, and his notions as Grant has for himself, or the people, but he does not stand so high, in our opinion, that we should observe any day he may select for Thanksgiving purposes.

The Constitution informs us that we have the privilege of worshipping when and how we please. But our readers must remember that that instrument is rather small potatoes in the estimation of Grant and Grant's squad of political whangdoodles. And as Grant has no respect for the people's rights, and as he don't propose to enforce his Thanksgiving proposition with the bayonet, we don't propose to observe it.

1st Because he has no right to make any such appointment.

2nd Because those who observe it are giving countenance to centralization and tyranny.

3d Because Thanksgiving Days originated with the Governors of the States, and with them it should remain. It is a State's right, and when observed, should be only at the request of the Governors.

We therefore refuse to be con-jured to give thanks on any occasion, in a religious point, when we are requested to do so by Grant.

As chief magistrate of the United States, he has done but little in our estimation, for which we can commend him, but we do know that he has done an immense deal of harm to political liberty throughout the United States, for which we can and do condemn him. The people who elected him to the position of Chief Magistrate, certainly could not have done so because he was wiser or better, or more learned than any of his fellow-citizens of the same party, for he is the weakest brother in the radical squad, who lays claims to knowledge of any kind. If then he did not gain his position with superior mind, he must certainly have gained a place in the hearts of his partisans on account of the fact that he had killed more of his own people in Battle than any citizen of this country.

The principles which were taught us by Jesus Christ, our Savior, and the exemplary life which he led have been held up to the world for eighteen hundred years, and to-day with all the light and experience which these long centuries have given us, we find men who are loud in their professions and protestations of christianity, and who are eternally wagging their tongues against their neighbors, proclaiming the wrath of the Flends of the realms of the damned against them, these very men, we say, who profess to follow Christ, but who do so a long way off, are the parties who hold up this impudent blood sucker, and who desire him foisted upon the people again.

What does Grant bring as a recommendation to his party, for sustenance and preferment?

Nothing but blood!

Had he as much mind as Stanton had, he would have cut his throat long since, as Stanton is said to have done, and the country would then have been rid of another Scab.

A proclamation for a Thanksgiving day from Grant, could be equaled only by a similar promulgation from the evil one. The mongrel party could observe a proclamation from either of the above tormentors of mankind without being conscience smitten.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

WEST VIRGINIA? 5000 DEMOCRAT MAJORITY.

Full returns from the Pennsylvania election give a majority of 2,932 to the Democrats—a gain of 30,000. Dakota sends a Democratic delegate to Congress.

WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, October 29.—In complete returns from about twenty counties, embracing two thirds of the State, show large Democratic gains, enough to warrant the announcement that the State has been carried by the Democrats by a small majority, perhaps 1,000 or 1,200; this the Republicans concede. They have also elected a Congressman from the First and Third Districts, and by large gains will be enabled to control the next Legislature, which elects United States Senator to fill the seat made vacant by Senator Wiley. The interior counties will not be heard from for several days, owing to a lack of telegraphic communication, but their returns will not materially change this estimate.

WHEELING, October 30.—The Register issues an extra this morning, presenting returns from twenty-three of the fifty-two counties composing the State, showing a Democratic majority of over five thousand, and adds that the other twenty-nine counties will give a clear majority of five thousand more.

EUROPEAN WAR NEWS.

SATURDAY, October 29th. A London dispatch states that the capitulation of Metz was not signed until Thursday night. The whole number of prisoners is reported at 173,000, including three Marshals and 6,000 officers. A special telegram from Bouillon announces that Bazaine's surrender was in conformity to an understanding with the King of Prussia, whereby a speedy peace was to be secured. Heavy firing was heard yesterday near Paris, the sound coming from the defenses between La Villette and Montmartre. An official dispatch, received at Tours announces that the Prussians were defeated between MontSidiard and Besancon. They fled in disorder, taking with them fifty-three wagons filled with wounded and leaving one thousand two hundred killed on the field. Three hundred of the fugitives crossed the frontier into Switzerland, and were disarmed. A dispatch from Berlin to the London Times intimates that the French had rejected the German terms for an armistice, but it was thought the fall of Metz would lead them to reconsider their determination. M. Thiers left Tours for Paris yesterday. The Prussians are reported to have commenced their advance on Lyons. There is no reliable intelligence from the armies operating in the vicinity of Orleans. It is asserted that the French Government has purchased in this country arms and war equipments to the value of 20,000,000 francs. These purchases have been made, it is said in its behalf, to avoid any violation of the neutrality laws, by private persons.

MONDAY, October 31.

Thiers has declined a Prussian safe conduct to Paris, because it requires him to go via Versailles. King William telegraphs to the Queen that he has conferred on Fritz and Frederick Charles the batons of Field Marshals. It is reported that the Northern and Southern States of Germany have agreed to name King William Emperor. The spoils captured at Metz include three thousand guns, forty millions of French war funds and twenty millions of French civil government department funds. The news of the surrender of Metz produced a profound impression at Tours. The Constitutional appeals to Gambetta to consent to an armistice, and offer immediate elections for the Constituent Assembly.

TUESDAY, November 1.

The Germans around Paris were yesterday holding solemn religious services. It is reported that the bombardment of Paris will commence to-day. A formal notice of the capitulation of Metz has been sent to Paris under a flag of truce. A Versailles dispatch says the rulers of the various States of South Germany have been invited to be present at the bombardment of Paris. Six thousand troops from the army of Prince Frederick Charles have gone to besiege Louigny, near the Belgian border. Garibaldi has expelled the Jesuits from Dale, and there is great indignation in consequence among certain portions of his troops. There is a rumor at Berlin that an attempt was made upon the life of King William at Versailles, a few days since, and that a German officer standing at his side was wounded. The Prussians on Sunday occupied Dijon after bombarding the town from nine o'clock in the morning until night. A dispatch from Versailles says that on Friday the French drove back the German outposts at Le Bourget a mile or so east of Fort St. Denis. On the evening of the same day the French were discovered occupying in force the position they had taken. On Sunday the Prussians attacked the point, and after a severe fight the French were driven back behind their fortifications. Thirty officers and 1,200 men were taken prisoners. The Prussian loss was heavy as the French fought behind earthworks.

WEDNESDAY, November 2.

The Empress Eugenie arrived at Wilhelmshoe on Sunday morning, and in the afternoon visited Napoleon in company with Bazaine. A dispatch from Brussels says a courier is waiting at Cassel to bring to Versailles the result of the conference at Wilhelmshoe between Eugenie, the Emperor and Bazaine. It is announced that the English dispatch recommending that the elections for the Constituent Assembly be held immediately has reached the Prussian headquarters. The Prussian authorities had previously sent a similar suggestion to Paris. The proposition of the Prussians for an armistice of forty-eight hours was instantly rejected by the Paris Government. The decline in the stock market in London on Monday was in consequence of a Cabinet meeting called, it is stated, to take action in regard to the continued and formidable armaments of Russia. It is stated that Russia now has five hundred thousand men under arms ready to take the field. There are also rumors of a secret treaty between Russia and Prussia to secure the revision by Europe of the treaty of Paris, and the liberation to Russia of the Black Sea, with the Dardanelles. It is reported at Tours that General Bourbaki has been forced to resign his command of the Army of the North, owing to the ill feeling shown him since the capitulation of Metz. It is asserted that Bourbaki knew of Bazaine's plan previous to the surrender, and was a party to it. Advice from Paris, received at Tours state that there is plenty of fresh meat and vegetables at Paris. The first party of Americans left Paris on the 25th ult., and arrived in London yesterday. The second party left on the 26th ult. It is announced that the Germans will open the bombardment of Paris with 250 siege guns.

RUN OFF.

This is to give notice that a man calling himself Daniel Bailey, about 47 years of age, and heavy set, left my employ on Tuesday night last, in my debt, and persuaded another man by the name of Anderson Bailey and Catherine Johnson to accompany him. He went off in the night largely in debt to myself as well as to others. He is a French speaking man, and is a native of North Carolina, and lived formerly in Jessamine county in this State. My object in advertising and giving notice is to prevent others from being imposed on as I have been.

LOCAL MATTER.

Take Notice.
All persons having notices in this column will be charged 20 cents per line.

For Sale.
A number of papers for sale at the News office for $1.00 per hundred.

Agents.
S. M. PETERS & Co., 37 Park Row, AND
Geo. P. Rowell & Co., 40 Park Row.
Are our only authorized Advertising Agents in New York.

Public Speaking.
To-day Col. Richardson, and Thos. Wrightson are posted to make a speech at the Court House. Mr. Wrightson is the Radical candidate for Congress.

The Fifty Cent Store.
Is on Pike Street, with a large and splendid variety of Goods to dispose of. Go and buy their new Glass sets. November 3, 1870—1f.

BISHOP CUMMINS.
Will preach (D. V.) in the Church of the Advent, Walnut Street, to night and to-morrow night, November 3rd and 4th. Divine Service to commence at seven o'clock. All are invited.

Divine Service on Sundays at 10.30 A. M. and 6.30 P. M.

Berryville.
Dr. T. W. Hedges, will remove this week, from the Columbusville District, to Ohio. A good opening for an enterprising Doctor.

Jno. W. Tibbatts, has removed to Newport, Ky.

Strayed.
Mr. F. G. Craig, is the owner of an extra yearling Bay Stallion, which left his premises last Friday night, and can not be found. The horse was heard of in and about Riddles Mills. Any information as to the whereabouts of this horse, will be thankfully received and liberally paid for.

Elder Case.
In a notice of this gentleman, a few weeks since, we announced that he had been in this city two years. He has been here four years, and during that time has been preaching at the Christian Church, with good success, having added over one hundred new members. He is an earnest and laborious servant in his Masters vineyard, and has not been idle during his sojourn in "Cynthiana."

Note Horse Thieves about.
Last Saturday night a horse thief visited the Farm of J. A. McKee, of this county and stole a mare.

It is time that our people began to awake and look around them. We have in our very midst a gang of horse thieves, and men whose passing is counterfeited money.

This thing must come to an end, and unless it does, we understand that a "Short rope and a low limb," will be brought into requisition for the benefit of certain parties. It is useless while Stevenson is Governor to use the Courts, for he turns them out of prison.

Two more horses were stolen of Saturday night near Riddles Mills, one from Jno. Redman, and one from an Irish woman, who keeps the toll gate between Paris and Riddles Mills.

Circuit Court.
We are authorized to say to all Litigants, and Jurors, who have been summoned to appear at the Circuit Court which convenes in this city next Monday, that they need not report for duty until Wednesday morning, November 9th, 1870, as no business can be done on Tuesday, that being a day set apart for the Congressional Election.

R. Boothroyd & Co.,
These gentlemen are engaged in the manufacture of Jeans, Linsey, and Stocking yarn, and are running the Cynthiana Woolen Mills, in a successful style. They understand their business, and are a benefit to our County. Recently, at our Fair, they took a Premium for making the best Jeans, the best Linsey, and the best stocking yarn, and it was correctly awarded to them. They keep for sale all the above articles at the cheapest rates. Their establishment is near the Cynthiana Flouring Mills. Call and see them.

Property Transferred.
Mr. J. J. Parish has sold a lot on the corner of Plum and Walnut streets, 126 feet front and 208 feet deep to Mr. Miller of the firm of Miller & McMillen, our lumber men, for which he paid $2,863.

Mr. W. A. Parish, of this city, purchased from J. J. Parish, a lot on Walnut street, containing 60 feet front and 208 feet deep, for which he paid $660—or $11 per foot front.

Town Talk.
Speaking of hogs, we will mention just here that the Lexington (Mo.) Caucasian, informs the world that hogs are worth in St. Louis, from $7 to $8½ against $7 to $8 in Chicago. Pleasant street Bridge, has not been commenced as yet, that any one has heard of. It would be a pleasant piece of news to the public if such was a fact.

Mr. Simcox, a machinist has opened a shop on the corner of Walnut and Bridge streets, go and see him.

Dr. Donnelly is our city dentist and one of the best in the states. He is not only a polite man, but he is good looking.

A. W. Lydick, has made an addition to his house by raising a portion of it from one to two stories.

M. H. Thornton, from the House of T. W. Sprague & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, called to see us yesterday. He understands his business. T. W. Sprague & Co., is a Clothing Establishment which has been in existence for many years. Over seventeen years ago this house advertised in the "News." It is an excellent firm.

Dr. Doughty, of Covington, called to see us last week.

Licking River is very low, so much so that we have heard of but one man drowning himself this year, and that was intentional. Mothers need have no fear about the safety of their children;

"Mudder, may I a schittin' went?"

"Six, my grossa dotter;

I bet twice more as footy cent."

Dat you get drowned to the votten."

The "Andes" is the name of another new Insurance Company, the sign for which went up on the Bank Building last Monday, with W. S. Hamilton, for Agent.

H. C. Magee has just returned from a trip to Missouri.

Sam Ashbrook arrived from Arkansas last week. He informs us that the Horse market is dull in that section.

T. J. Megibben, Esq., returned from New York last Saturday.

Last Sunday night the weather turned quite cool.

Cynthiana can boast of two new and handsome Churches.

A Baptist Divine delivered a Sermon at the Court House, in this city last week, which, it is said, abounded in sundry expressions about other denominations that had in many respects the effect to stir up strife, and not to give to one that character of peace which passeth all understanding.

We have not heard much from the Steam Fire Engine Council Committee. What have they done?

Talking of advertising, we think the following will do very well: No bell can ring so loudly as a good advertisement. People will believe what they see rather than what they hear.

At the Millinery establishment of Bassett & Woods, on the corner of Pike and Walnut streets, will be found the finest assortment of ladies head dressers, and new and fashionable styles of Hats and Bonnets ever exhibited in Cynthiana. Call and see them.

Mr. Pendleton, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was in Cynthiana, yesterday.

Jno. A. Keller, has taken charge of the Distillery of B. K. Reynolds at Boyd's Station. He is one of the best distillers in the Country.

Col. Geo. K. Dills was in Cynthiana last week.

C. Izag, of the Lewisburg Brewery, near Covington, made a flying visit to our town last week.

Business in Cynthiana is brisk, especially in hunting. Quite a number of people are fishing and hunting. Let us say to those people who hunt on Sunday, that the Grand Jury imposes fine and imprisonment on all people who violate the Sabbath.

We understand that a few present members will be made—so look out, Sabbath Breakers.

C. B. Cook and James A. Cook have returned from a trip to New York, all hunkidoo.

Joe Fennell and Lady have just returned from a visit down in the Southern portion of the State.

For the West.
Subscriptions are now being received from all Soldiers and Citizens at this Post Office or by R. F. Long, from those who wish to join the Emigration Society—going west to Colorado. We understand that all who join will be taken to Denver City from Cincinnati at one-fourth the regular fare.

Whisky Trade.
Cook & Ashbrook sold fifteen barrels of last years make of whisky, to parties in New York City, at good prices.

Sharp Thief.
Last Monday, a German from Ripley Ohio, called on Mr. Daller, a Jeweler, of this city, and scraped up an acquaintance, which proved to be an unprofitable one to Mr. D. In the store Mr. Daller's little daughter attended to the sales and the business during his absence, and on Monday while her father was out, his Ripley friend stepped in and told the daughter to hand him a gold watch which he said belonged to him and for which he was indebted for repairs one dollar and a quarter. The money was paid and the watch handed over and, the cars passing through town carried the Ripley man away. Stealing and robbing has become rather a poor business, and has reached a low point, when thieves are compelled to steal on a scale as small as this.

$1,000 Reward.
Is offered by the proprietor of Dr. Pierce's Ah. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery, for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of all severe lingering Coughs, Liver Complaint or Biliousness, and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood, as Eruptions, Pimples, Blisters, and Boils. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet sent free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Simmons' Liver Regulator.
For derangement of the Liver, for Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, Piles, etc., Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator certainly has no superior. It acts like a charm, without debilitating the system. I have tried it thoroughly, and speak what I know.

REV. S. GARNER, Atapungus, Ga.

Acclaimed.
CINCINNATI, July 14th, 1870.
Messrs. F. E. STINE & Co., Cincinnati:—I have used Wayne's Diuretic Elixir, and can fully endorse it as a prompt and efficient remedy for the relief of kidney complaints, and pains in the back and loins incident.

A. Beck,
N. W. Corner Sixth and Plum.

What Hon. Thad Stevens Thought About Mischler's Herb Bitters.
Mr. William Lambert, First Assistant Engineer, U. S. N., writes to Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., of Lancaster, Pa., the following: "At the college of New Orleans I was wounded in the right leg by a shell. The wound healed up, but a bad sore broke out near my ankle. Several doctors tried to cure me, but none succeeded. It was then that the Hon. Thad Stevens, a member of Congress, saw me, and on learning the nature of my trouble, told me about MISCHLER'S HERB BITTERS, saying, 'It is the most wonderful combination of medicinal herbs I ever saw. Use it myself, and I know that it will cure you in a very short period. Try it, my friend, try it, I will give it to you.' The result fully justified the high opinion of Mr. Stevens regarding your Bitters, for its use was followed by a perfect cure. Sold by druggists generally. Price one dollar a bottle."
